Analytics and Managed Review

Executing a managed review may seem like a straightforward task, but there are often-overlooked details leaving cost and time savings on the table. ID knows the questions to ask to identify the details and build your personalized workflow.

ID takes a consultative approach for every project to determine the most efficient review workflow, leveraging analytics, to help identify critical information faster.

Moreover, we offer on-premise and remote options warranting you can implement a secure and efficient review to accomplish your goals.

- Customized and strategic workflows
- Comprehensive and ongoing vetting of resources
- Ability to review from anywhere in the U.S. remotely or on-premise at one of ID's secure review centers
- Expert consultants, legal technologists
- Proactive deployment of TAR solutions and validation for defensibility
- ID provides a full suite of analytics and algorithmic tools

DistributID Review

ID's remote review offering, DistributID Review, provides a secure, economical, and well-managed alternative solution by utilizing an experienced and completely remote talent pool in markets across the U.S.

Traditional Review

ID provides a full suite of analytics and algorithmic coding tools and delivers a metrics ID solution.

Data Breach Review

ID works with you immediately to review the breached data and identify sensitive information allowing you to assess the severity of the breach as quickly as possible.and get back on your feet.

Connect with us